

Ebola exposed the need for Nigeria to have a more effective response system to curb the spread of infectious diseases

TRAINING OF TRAINERS WORKSHOP

INFECTIOUS DISEASES MANAGEMENT

Lagos Business School, in conjunction with the Lagos State government and Yale University in the US, is organizing a Train-the-Trainers workshop for health workers. It is aimed at providing all health institutions in Nigeria with personnel trained to manage infectious diseases.

The two-day training will hold in 2 batches: February 9- 10th 2015 and February 11-12th, 2015.

For more information please contact the underlisted:

Dr. Henrietta Onwuegbuzie	+234 802 327 2773
Dr. Orode Doherty	+2348068349743
Mr. Adebayo Alonge	+234813 086 2270

It is to be provided free to public health sector professionals and will be heavily subsidized for trainer health workers in the private sector as follows:

- N40,000 - Doctors
- N20,000 - Nurses
- N10,000 - Facilities Supervisors/Administrators

Yale University

